

Canada Meets Germany

Weeklong Seminar 7th – 13th March, 2010

The Forum

Canada Meets Germany (CMG) is an active network of young people from across the world who conduct activity to strengthen German-Canadian relations. Members can join the forum by taking part in a CMG Weeklong Seminar.

The aim of CMG is to establish a solid and lasting foundation for dialogue between the two countries in order to promote mutual understanding on a societal level. CMG provides a framework for young, dedicated people from a variety of fields including business, politics, academia, science, culture, and the media to meet and exchange ideas.

Seminar Program, 7th – 13th March, 2010 (Berlin)

The forthcoming CMG Weeklong Seminar will be held in Berlin from 7th – 13th March 2010 and will have as a theme

“Bi-lateral Cooperation on Global Public Goods: The Future of the German-Canadian Relationship”

In addition to looking in greater detail at the history and development of cultural diplomacy, the next CMG Weeklong Seminar will consider the current and future cooperation of German-Canadian relationship on global public goods. In particular, it will focus on the following areas:

- Engaging with diversity: Comparative responses to multiculturalism and integration
- Approaches to peacekeeping and humanitarian intervention
- Co-operation on green technologies and protection of the environment
- The history and development of the German-Canadian relationship
- Areas for further co-operation between Canada and Germany

Further information about the program, including the online application form can be found under:

www.canadameetsgermany.org

icd
institute for cultural diplomacy

Ku'damm Karree (3rd Floor - Hochhaus)
Kurfürstendamm 207-8, D-10719 Berlin
Phone: +49 (0) 30 2360 7680 Fax: +49 (0) 30 2360 76811
E-Mail: info@culturaldiplomacy.org
Web: www.culturaldiplomacy.org